Objective: To utilize my sales, management, marketing, and banking experience to further my career in the industry. Use my knowledge and experience with local nonprofit organizations to help those organizations and maintain a community presence.

Education:

1987-1993 Diploma obtained, East Allegheny Junior/Senior High
1992-1993 Certificate obtained, Forbes Road East Area Vo-Tech- Protection services, police, fire, Ems.

Employment

Sept 1994- Present- Pittsburgh East Entertainment/Bankshot Entertainment Owner/DJ/MC

In Sept 1994, at Slippery Rock Campground, I started my company as a Disc Jockey. Currently I work as a DJ and part owner of Pittsburgh East Entertainment. I use my customer service and marketing skills to present and grow our day-to-day operations. We must constantly use social and local media to help promote our business and current events. I have helped numerous nonprofit organizations run events and raise money. I work closely with media and business owners to ensure that we are displaying the message to the guests. I have personally worked with many different charitable organizations to help drive traffic and raise funds for their organization. I have promoted events through social media as well as print and radio advertising. I must use my interpersonal skills to work closely with all members of events to ensure each and every event is run smoothly.

November 1997- December 1999 Sun Television and Appliances- Audio Sales and Service Manager

I started as a Sales Representative, where I was trained in sales, service, cross sales, and marketing for our entire audio department. In June of 1999, I became manager of the Audio Department, where I was responsible for sales, scheduling, daily goal setting, and marketing for the entire department. Job

Duties included, developing all marketing materials for department, scheduling staff to maximize campaign performance, achieving and exceeding branch and company goals, and handling all customer problem resolution. Before the Bankruptcy our branch became the number one branch in Audio Sales in all of Sun Television. I was also in line for management for my own branch but the bankruptcy caused that promotion to not take place.
